

set of panelists for every research project. As for the future, research is under way to create the same data base in forty global markets soon the same blending methods will be available from Australia to the United Kingdom.